

Highlights of the 2007 Kansas Environmental Education Conference

DIGGING EE: UNCOVERING NEW CONNECTIONS

Dr Cheryl Charles

Kansas Archery in the Schools provides an opportunity for all students to succeed

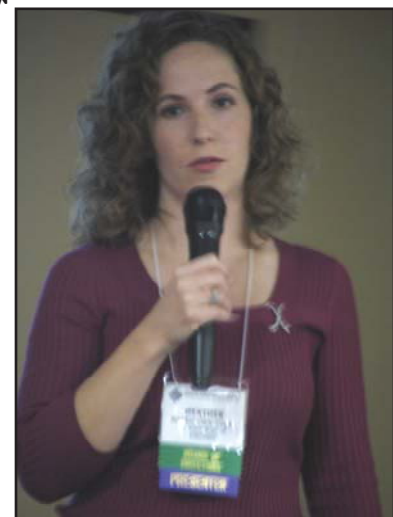

Participants toured an OWLS (Outdoor Wildlife Learning Site) at a local Elementary School

Dr Gary Hulett

Participants receiving ideas on how to engage children in an outdoor setting

Heather Click-Cuellar

Highlights

- More than 100 teachers, non-formal educators and others in attendance
- Keynote Speakers: Dr. Cheryl Charles, President, Children & Nature Network; Dr. Gary Hulett, Biology Professor, Fort Hays State University (retired); Heather Click-Cuellar, Education Consultant in Science, Kansas State Department of Education
- Special Welcome by: State Representative Eber Phelps
- Field Trips to Hays OWLS Site/KSU Ag Research Center; Hays Recycling, Groundwater Remediation, and Composting Sites; and Oil and Gas Field Tour
- Pre-conference Workshop: Adventures in Environmental Ed: Everyone Learns!

Pre-Conference workshop participants demonstrating methods for the meeting the needs of all students