

Educator Workshop: Watershed and Natural Resource Education In the Classroom

This is a professional development opportunity for educators offered by the Kansas Association for Conservation and Environmental Education (KACEE), Delaware River Watershed Restoration and Protection Strategy (WRAPS), and USD 430 Horton.

The program will include training in Project WET, Project WILD and WILD Aquatic, and Project Learning Tree. In addition participants will receive the Kansas Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom Exploring Kansas' Natural Resources Educator Guide and corresponding lessons. During the course, participants will engage in hands on activities related to water and watersheds, wildlife, natural resources, habitat and much more with a focus on local watershed issues and projects. Participants will learn what environmental education is and how to incorporate it into the classroom. Field study opportunities exploring local watershed improvement efforts (Mission Lake, Jackson County Household Hazardous Waste Facility, and a look at buffer strips) are included.
